CLASIS LAW

Celebrating 12 years of service excellence!

Message from Vineet Aneja, Managing Partner at Clasis law

We completed 12 years on September 15, 2022. Its been 12 years but I can still recollect September 15, 2010 and the events that led upto the start of the firm. It was, has been and continues to be as exciting as the first day. Every day, month and year is a milestone. I believe that we have grown to where we are currently because of the three primary values – equality in our behavior, transparency in all our practices and consistency in all our decision-making. It is because of our adherence to these principles that we have seen such consistent success in these twelve years. I'm of the thought that an organization is just a concept, and Clasis is no different. If we take care of this concept and play our parts well, it will take care of all of us.

What has changed in Clasis in the last 10 years?

Over the last few years, I have seen us continuously improving on the quality of delivery of our services as a firm. Besides, there has been a significant change in the way of doing business primarily due to COVID-19 and its after effects. In our journey till now, we have achieved several feats together, and this has been possible only because we believe in prioritizing our client's interest before our interest. Whenever a client reaches out to us with their issue, our primary goal is to understand their pain points in their business and provide the most appropriate solution/advice.

I am extremely thankful to all of our clients with whom we have proudly worked side-by-side as we continually endeavour to help them and support their mission. It continues to be an honor and a privilege.

Becoming Clasis Law!

In 2010, we knew we wanted to tear down boundaries, grow and serve, and that is what we strive to achieve with each passing day. We started small and have grown to have the patronage of many Fortune 500 companies. We have experienced our share of downs, but continue to strive to work for good years and great years.

2022, The Year of Big Achievements

As we celebrate 12 years since our inception in 2022, it is a great time to highlight a few of our most recent achievements.

- Clasis Law ranked in the Asialaw 2022-23 annual rankings under the practice areas Corporate and M&A, Labour and employment, Dispute resolution & Restructuring and insolvency.
- Clasis Law is ranked as a Tier - 3 M&A Law firm in India by Asian Legal Business's latest Asia M&A Rankings 2022.
- Clasis Law was awarded in India Business Law Journal's 2022 edition of Indian Law Firm Awards in the area of "Insurance & Reinsurance".
- I was recognized by Forbes India 2021 as one of the Top Managing Partners and one of the Top Individual Lawyers in India.
- I was once again recognized in The A-List 2021-22 as one of the top 100 Lawyers in India by India Business Law Journal.
- A few of our partners have been recognized as Super 50 Lawyers in India, Top Disputes Lawyer in India and Rising Stars in India 2022 by Asian Legal Business and also as Mondaq Thought Leading Authors India at Spring 2022 awards.

Lastly...

We continue to build on the work we had started in the first place, and it is our Firm's conviction that prioritizing client success is the foundation for long-term profitability. We have set our standards high, strived and continue to strive hard to achieve them, and elevated ourselves to higher places. The learning and effort will never cease for team Clasis. I'd like all of us to remember that as we step into the new decade, we need to focus on listening to the needs of our clients and most importantly understand our clients; there are opportunities for all of us – and if we all pull together, we are going to make it happen – even better than our previous years. Lastly, I want to congratulate you all once again on this occasion. And, look forward to celebrating many more such milestones together.

Anniversary Celebrations!

Elevations!

Congratulations to all the newly promoted team members of Clasis Law.

LEGAL UPDATE

Can Arbitrator grant post award interest on any sum awarded under an Award?

Introduction

In a recent judgement, the division bench of the Supreme Court ("SC") in the case of *Morgan Securities and Credits Private Ltd. vs Videocon Industries Ltd(1)., has answered an interesting question on whether an Arbitrator has the discretion to grant post award interest on only the principal sum awarded in an arbitral award under the provision of Section 31(7)(b) of the Arbitration and Conciliation Act, 1996 ("Act").

Facts

The Appellant and the Respondent entered into a bill discounting agreement under which the Appellant disbursed an amount of Rs. 5,00,32,656 ("Principal Amount") to the Respondent. As the said amount remained unpaid, the Appellant issued a notice for payment of the amount due along with interest. Since the Respondent failed to pay the said overdue amount, the Appellant issued a notice on January 31, 2008 and invoked the arbitration under the agreement.

The sole arbitrator rendered an arbitral award awarding the Principal Amount in favour of the Appellant along with interest payable as follows: 21% per annum from the date of default to the date of notice, 36% per annum with monthly rests from the date of demand notice to the date of award ("pre award interest") and 18% per annum on the Principal Amount payable from date of award to the date of payment ("post-award interest").

The Appellant confronted the said award under Section 34 of the Act before the Single Judge bench of the Delhi HC on the ground that the post-award interest should be awarded on the total sum of pre award interest and the Principal Amount. The Single Judge bench dismissed the petition holding that the arbitrator has a discretion to restrict the post-award interest to the Principal Amount. The Appellant challenged the order of the single judge. However, the division bench of the Delhi HC confirmed the order of Single Judge. The Appellant thereafter preferred a SLP before the SC which confined itself with the issue regarding the post-award interest.

Submissions by the Parties

The Appellant submitted that in view of the provisions of Section 31(7) of the Act and the judgment of the SC in the case of *Hyder Consulting(2), if pre-award interest is awarded on the Principal Amount (aggregate of Principal Amount and pre-award interest referred as the "sum") the post-award interest must be granted on the sum. It was further submitted that once pre-award interest is awarded on the Principal Amount, the interest becomes part of the Principal Amount and the post-award interest should be awarded on the sum. The Appellant further asserted that even in case of *SL Arora(3), the discretion of the arbitral tribunal under Section 31(7)(b) of the Act was only with respect to the rate of the post-award interest and not on the 'sum' on which he could grant interest. The Respondent submitted that Section 31(7)(b) is qualified by the phrase "unless the award otherwise directs". Therefore, Section 31(7)(b) would only be applicable where an arbitral award is silent on the component of post-award interest. It was contended that under Section 31(7)(b) of the Act, the arbitrator has the discretion to (a) grant post-award interest; (b) determine the quantum over which the post-award interest should be granted; and (c) determine the rate at which the interest should be calculated.

Analysis by the Court and Conclusion

The Court first revisited the SL Arora judgement where it had held that Section 31(7) of the Act does not make any reference to the payment of compound interest or interest on interest. The Court thereafter examined in detail the separate opinions authored by all Hon'ble Judges of the bench who had presided over in the Hyder Consulting and observed that the majority opinion in the Hyder Consulting was that the view taken in SL Arora is erroneous. The Justice SA Bobde further observed that the word 'sum' used by Section 31(7) and observed that "the parliament had intentionally not qualified the term 'sum' with the word 'principal' and thus would take the meaning of particular amount of money, the 'sum' would include both principal and interest, and when interest is directed to be paid on the principal under Section 31(7)(a), the aggregate amount after merging pre-award interest and the principal would be the 'sum', where the two components of principal and interest would have lost their identities."

On further analysis of Section 31(7) of the Act, the Court observed that subsection (b) was qualified with the terms "unless the award otherwise directs". which occurred after the words 'a sum directed to be paid by an arbitral award shall' and before the words 'carry interest at the rate of eighteen per cent". Thus, those words qualified only the rate of post-award interest and not the discretion over what sum the arbitrator could choose. The Court observed that subsection (b) only contemplates a situation in which the discretion is not exercised by the arbitrator. Therefore, the observations in Hyder Consulting on the meaning of 'sum' would not restrict the discretion of the arbitrator to grant post-award interest. It further opined that "The discretion of the arbitrator can only be restricted by an express provision to that effect. Clause (a) subjects the exercise of discretion by the arbitrator on the grant of pre-award interest to the arbitral award. However, there is no provision in the Act which restricts the exercise of discretion to grant post-award interest by the arbitrator."

After detailed deliberation, Court finally held that Section 31(7)(b) does not fetter or restrict the discretion that the arbitrator holds in granting post-award interest. The arbitrator has the discretion to award post-award interest on a part of the sum and the award of arbitrator granting post award interest on the principal amount is not erroneous. Thus, the Appeal was dismissed.

No pre-litigation mediation required if urgent reliefs are sought in a suit for trademark infringement

The Delhi High Court in the case of *Bolt Technology OU vs Ujoy Technology Private Limited and Anr(1) has held that if urgent interim reliefs are sought in a suit for trademark infringement, then such a suit is not liable to be dismissed under Order 7 Rule 11 of the Code of Civil Procedure, 1908 ("CPC"). In terms, whereof Order 7 Rule 11 provides grounds for rejection of plaint by the court.

Facts

Bolt Technology OU ("Plaintiff") filed an application seeking an exemption from pre-litigation mediation in the captioned suit whilst seeking a permanent injunction restraining Ujoy Technology Private Limited and another, ("Defendant") for passing off of and trademark/copyright infringement, amongst other reliefs. The Plaintiff case is that it is the registered proprietor of the mark "BOLT" and is engaged in the business of providing ride-hailing, food and grocery delivery, rental of cars, e-bikes and scooters, Electric Vehicle (EV) and charging stations/docks. The Plaintiff further stated that it has obtained various registrations for the mark 'BOLT' in several jurisdictions. It is the case of the Plaintiff that the Defendants have been using the identical mark "BOLT", along with its logo in an identical business of providing charging points for EVs. The competing logos used by the Plaintiff and the Defendants are as under:

Plaintiff's Marks	Defendants' Marks
BOLT	BOLT
Bolt	BOLT

The Plaintiff further submitted that it is present and operates in more than 400 cities in around 45 countries around the world and has provided services to more than 100 million customers. The Plaintiff further claimed that the term "BOLT" also forms a part of its corporate identity and has used various mediums to extensively advertise and promote its brand. The Plaintiff further claimed that a general search of the term 'Bolt' in the Google Play or Apple App Store would return results with the Plaintiff and Defendant's apps.

Submissions

It is the Plaintiff's case that the Defendants are using the identical mark "BOLT" with an identical colour scheme for the business of providing electric vehicle charging points, which is similar to one of the services provided by the Plaintiff. The Plaintiff further submitted that the use of the mark "BOLT" by the Defendants violates the global reputation and goodwill acquired by the Plaintiff and hence constitutes passing off. The Plaintiff further submitted that is has registered its mark in more than 50 countries vide approximately 100 separate registrations and thus, there exists an urgent need for injunctions being granted against the Defendants. Whilst countering the submissions of the Plaintiff, the Defendants preliminary objection was on the ground that the preconditions stipulated under Section 12A of the Commercial Courts Act, 2015 ("CCA") were not satisfied and thus, the plaint is liable to be rejected. The Defendant relied on the judgement of the Hon'ble Supreme Court in the matter of Patil Automation Private Limited vs. Rakheja Engineers Private Limited(2) to argue that pre-litigation mediation under Section 12A of the CCA is mandatory. The Defendants further relied on ECL Finance Ltd. v. Tashee Nirman Pvt. Ltd. and Ors(3) in which the court relying on the judgement of the Bombay High Court in the case of Ganga Taro Vazirani v. Deepak Raheja(4), and submitted that, with effect from August 20, 2022, the Supreme Court has held that pre-litigation mediation under Section 12A is mandatory and that no suit can be entertained without having first resorted to pre-litigation mediation as contemplated under Section 12A of the CCA.

In response thereto, the Plaintiff submitted that the Supreme court in the case of Patil Automation(5) had carved out an exception, whereby, if an urgent interim relief is being sought, then a commercial suit can be filed without resorting to pre-litigation mediation. Pertinently, the Plaintiff made a factual submission that the Plaintiff had served a legal notice dated May 24, 2022 on the Defendants wherein the Plaintiff had expressly sought for an amicable settlement of the dispute, which was unceremoniously rejected by the Defendants whilst also demanding compensation of Rs. 5,00,75,000/-. The Hon'ble Court settled the Defendant's contentions vis-à-vis non-compliance of Section 12A of the CCA and was pleased to record that:

"A perusal of the correspondence, extracted hereinabove, leaves no doubt in the mind of the Court that the Defendants were in no way interested in an amicable resolution of the dispute. Instead, the hand of mediation which was lent by the Plaintiff was met with a tight slap."

The Plaintiff finally submitted that as the Defendant's mobile application was available for download on the Google Play and Apple App Store, the same was available for download to the general public every minute of the day, and as the Defendant's app contained the Plaintiff's trademark, an urgent interim relief was necessary and imperative.

Observations by the Court and Conclusion

The court revisited the provisions of Section 12A of the CCA whilst bearing reference to the judgement of the Hon'ble Bombay High Court in Deepak Raheja vs Ganga Taro Vazirani(6) wherein the Bombay High Court while examining the legislative intent of Section 12A had observed that:

Section 12A does not come into play if the suit contemplates an urgent relief. If a commercial suit (of specified value) contemplates urgent relief, it can be instituted in the court straightaway. Therefore, two classes of commercial disputes are contemplated under Section 12A. One in which an urgent interim relief is not contemplated and second where urgent interim relief is contemplated. Section 12A provides different schemes for these two classes of disputes. Where there is no urgent interim relief to first exhaust the remedy of pre institution mediation. Where there is an urgent interim relief contemplated to approach the court directly. The emphasis is that for a particular type of dispute particular kind of remedy is more appropriate. Section 12A segregates commercial disputes depending on their urgency. Making segregation at the inception of a commercial dispute is a considered legislative instrument to speed up the disposal of commercial disputes.

The court observed that the Hon'ble Supreme Court in the Patil Automation(7) case had also remarked that in the said case as no urgent interim reliefs were sought, the provisions pre-litigation mediation under Section 12A of the CCA were mandatory. The Court opined that this interpretation of the Supreme Court had kept open a necessary question which was very relevant to the present case, i.e., whether the Plaintiff was entitled to urgent interim reliefs and as such, whether exemption ought to be granted from going into pre-litigation mediation.

In order to answer this question, the Court referred to the judgement of the Supreme Court in the case of Laxmikant v. Patel v. Chetanbhai Shah & Anr.(8) which clearly outlines why there exists a need for interim reliefs in cases of intellectual property infringement. The Supreme Court therein had held that;

"A refusal to grant an injunction in spite of the availability of facts, which are prima facie established by overwhelming evidence and material available on record justifying the grant thereof, occasion a failure of justice and such injury to the plaintiff as would not be capable of being undone at a later stage. The discretion exercised by the Trial court and the High court against the plaintiff, is neither reasonable nor judicious. The grant of interlocutory injunction to the plaintiff could not have been refused, therefore, it becomes obligatory on the part of this court to interfere."

The court thereafter made a keen observation that urgent interim reliefs in IP cases are extremely important as "Such matters do not merely involve the interest of the Plaintiff and the Defendants, which are the contesting parties before the court, but also involve the interest of the customers/consumers of the products and services in question."

The Court observed that the Plaintiff and the Defendant's mobile applications were available for download on respective mobile platforms and thus a case for urgent interim injunction could be made out in a separate application for injunction.

The Court also observed that while Plaintiff had made an attempt to amicably reconcile its dispute with the Defendant, the language used by the Defendant's in its reply whereby the Defendants termed the Plaintiff's notice as "frivolous" and sought compensation upwards of Rs. 5 Crores from the Plaintiff. Accordingly, the Court held that, the Defendant's conduct was clearly not in the spirit of any amicable resolution, let alone mediation.

Based on the aforesaid observations, it was concluded that as the Plaintiff's application satisfied all the conditions under Section 12A of the CCA, i.e.,

(1) Firstly, the Plaintiff had attempted an amicable resolution which was clearly refuted, rejected and condemned by the Defendants; and

(2) Secondly, the Plaintiff has also sought urgent interim relief before this Court and is entitled to maintain the present suit.

Accordingly, the Plaintiff was allowed to register the Plaint and its application seeking an exemption from pre-litigation mediation was allowed.

Recommendations of the Working group on Digital Lending - Implementation

On 10 August 2022, RBI issued a press release on "Recommendations of the Working group on Digital Lending- Implementation". RBI is statutorily mandated to operate the credit system of the country to its advantage. In this endeavour, the RBI has encouraged innovation in the financial system, products and credit delivery methods while ensuring their orderly growth, preserving financing stability and ensuring protection of depositors' and customers' interest. Recently, innovative methods of designing and delivery of credit products and their servicing through Digital Lending route have acquired prominence. However, certain concerns have also emerged which, if not mitigated, may erode the confidence of members of public in the digital lending ecosystem. The concerns primarily relate to unbridled engagement of third parties, mis-selling, breach of data privacy, unfair business conduct, charging of exorbitant interest rates, and unethical recovery practices. Against this background, RBI had constituted a Working Group on 'digital lending including lending through online platforms and mobile apps' (WGDL) on 13 January 2021. The Working Group had submitted its report which was later put on the RBI website for comments. Based on the inputs that were received from various stakeholders, the RBI has decided to strengthen the regulatory framework so as to provide growth of credit delivery through digital lending methods while trying to reduce the regulatory concerns. The Regulatory framework is based on the principle that lending businesses can be carried out only by entities that are either regulated by the RBI or entities that are permitted to do so under any other law.

The universe of digital lenders is classified into three groups –

(a) Entities regulated by the RBI and permitted to carry out lending business;
(b) Entities authorized to carry out lending as per other statutory/regulatory provisions but not regulated by RBI;
(c) Entities lending outside the purview of any statutory/regulatory provisions.

In the above backdrop, RBI has examined the recommendations made by the WGDL. Recommendations accepted for immediate implementation and the consequent regulatory stance are enclosed as Annex-I to this circular.

Foreign Exchange Management (Overseas Investment) Directions, 2022

On 22 August 2022, the RBI issued a Notification on the Foreign Exchange Management (Overseas Investment) Directions, 2022. Overseas investments by persons resident in India enhance the scale and scope of business operations of Indian entrepreneurs by providing global opportunities for growth. Such ventures through easier access to technology, research and development, a wider global market and reduced cost of capital along with other benefits increase the competitiveness of Indian entities and boost their brand value. These overseas investments are also important drivers of foreign trade and technology transfer thus boosting domestic employment, investment and growth through such interlinkages.

In keeping with the spirit of liberalisation and to promote ease of doing business, the Central Government and the RBI have been progressively simplifying the procedures and rationalising the rules and regulations under the Foreign Exchange Management Act, 1999. In this direction, a significant step has been taken with operationalisation of a new Overseas Investment regime. Foreign Exchange Management (Overseas Investment) Rules, 2022 have been notified by the Central Government vide Notification No. G.S.R. 646(E) dated 22 August 2022 and Foreign Exchange Management (Overseas Investment) Regulations, 2022 have been notified by the Reserve Bank vide Notification No. FEMA 400/2022-RB dated 22 August 2022 in supersession of the Notification No. FEMA 120/2004-RB dated 7 July 2004 [Foreign Exchange Management (Transfer or Issue of any Foreign Security) (Amendment) Regulations, 2004] and Notification No. FEMA 7 (R)/2015-RB dated 21 January 2016 [Foreign Exchange Management (Acquisition and Transfer of Immovable Property Outside India) Regulations, 2015]. The new regime simplifies the existing framework for overseas investment by persons resident in India to cover wider economic activity and significantly reduces the need for seeking specific approvals. This will reduce the compliance burden and associated compliance costs.

Some of the significant changes brought about through the new rules and regulations are summarised below:

(i) enhanced clarity with respect to various definitions;

(ii) introduction of the concept of "strategic sector" which shall include energy and natural resources sectors such as Oil, Gas, Coal, Mineral Ores, submarine cable system and start-ups and any other sector or sub-sector as deemed fit by the Central Government;

(iii) dispensing with the requirement of approval for:

- deferred payment of consideration;
- investment/disinvestment by persons resident in India under investigation by any investigative agency/regulatory body;
- issuance of corporate guarantees to or on behalf of second or subsequent level step down subsidiary (SDS);
- write-off on account of disinvestment;

(iv) introduction of "Late Submission Fee (LSF)" for reporting delays.

The detailed operational instructions in this regard are given in Annex-I to this circular. The instructions contained in these directions shall supersede the instructions contained in the circulars listed in Annex-II of this circular.
